

Hi there,

We're sliding from winter into the warmer days of spring. Cold weather may still have us in its grip, but spring is a promise that we can believe in. When it comes to what to drink, we've got wines for whatever March sends your way. Choose your bottles before 12 p.m. PT / 3 p.m. ET, February 27th.

COZY UP WITH CAB

2014 Oro en Paz Chalk Hill Cabernet Franc
— paired with —
Southwestern Steak with Roasted Poblanos

When winter's final storm hits, take shelter with this elegant Cabernet Franc. Its soft tannins and defined acidity are a match for our Southwestern spin on steak and potatoes.

TOAST THE EQUINOX

2017 La Bregeonnette Muscadet
— paired with —
Provençal Sole and Tomato Bourride

Spring officially arrives on the 21st, regardless of what the weather map looks like. Welcome it with an easy-to-drink Muscadet. It's silky, rich, and just right for the mellow flavors of this sumptuous fish stew.

SPRING IS POPPING

2016 Tendu California Vermentino
— paired with —
Salmon Tostadas with Chile-Lime Salsa

Crisp and fresh, this Vermentino is as zippy as the season's first daffodils. When the dinner and the drinking are easy, pour this with our bright salmon tostadas.
